Origin: The Divine Mother and Mother Earth

Keywords: The true, pure and unconditional love of a mother

When I received the essence The Love of a Mother, I felt like a baby calling for its mother and reaching out toward her. My heart chakra opened wide, like hands stretching upward in search of the mother. Then The Divine Mother came to me and gave me what I had longed for so deeply: motherly love – the true, pure and unconditional love of a mother.

Immediately, my whole system relaxed. It felt as though I needed nothing more than the feeling of being loved by my mother. A feeling that spreads through every cell and fulfills a fundamental need that every human being has. If, for whatever reason, we did not receive this pure and unconditional love, we carry the feeling that something essential is missing within us.

The essence The Love of a Mother wraps us in this unconditional love and fulfills this deep and essential need within us. A feeling of safety and well-being arises when we call for our mother and she comes, holds us, and says: “Everything is alright. I am with you, I hold and protect you. You are safe.” The Love of a Mother fulfills something within us that perhaps we have never truly experienced before. It opens a space of unconditional acceptance of what is.

If we experienced true and pure motherly love in our childhood, self-love could naturally grow from it. If we did not have this blessing, the essence The Love of a Mother supports us in developing a sense of being loved. We can then treat ourselves with much more love, take better care of ourselves, and learn to be the loving mother to ourselves that we always needed. It can also help us set loving boundaries when necessary.

The essence The Love of a Mother also helps us make peace with our mother. When we experience true motherly love through the essence, we no longer need to wait to receive it from our mother. Our mothers could not give what they themselves had never experienced. Often, consciously or unconsciously, we hold resentment toward our mother because this deep need for love was never fully met, and we did not feel truly loved in childhood and adolescence — perhaps even to this day. When we experience pure motherly love through the essence, the resentment we carry toward our mother can begin to dissolve.

Part 2 received from our beloved Mother Earth – a wonderful gift which enhanced and complemented this essence. The Love of a Mother encourages the root, sacral, solar plexus, and heart chakras to open to the rising energy and unconditional love of our Mother Earth. The essence helps us connect our heart center with the heart of Mother Earth.

May this essence be a blessing for you.

With heartfelt love and gratitude,
